

Technician - Survey & Mapping

JTL-PE-T-S&M-05-23 | Engineering | Full-Time | Posted on August 31st, 2023 | Expires on May 31st, 2023

We are looking to hire a competent Technician who will be responsible for surveying, capturing and mapping of all physical infrastructure data into the system.

JOB ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Participate in surveying, capturing and mapping of all company physical plant infrastructure.
 - Conduct physical survey, map, and document utilization of all plant infrastructure, maintaining an up-to-date record keeping track of dynamic and day to day changes.
 - Assist in network capacity forecasts and planning of upgrades of Infrastructure based on current utilization.
 - Assist in automation of repetitive tasks where appropriate.
 - Collaborate with data science and System Software teams in uploading data and information in structured and approved formats.
 - Operate with a high level of personal organization to identify operations and network subsystem maintenance needs and prioritize action plan.
 - Assist in updating and keeping records of network connections to all customer and backbone touchpoints to the network.
-

QUALIFICATIONS

- Higher National Diploma in Survey / Degree in Survey, Geospatial Engineering and any other related courses.
- At least two (2) years' experience in a similar role, preferably in the Telecommunication Industry.
- Practical knowledge of survey and mapping tools as AutoCad, ArchGIS or other.
- Cable and Asset Inventory Software as netTerrain, NetMaster, or other similar Asset Inventory and Software Systems.

- Significant experience in the documentation and interpretation of cable network infrastructure.
-

Location: Nairobi

Department: Planning & Engineering

Job Type: full-time