

Radio Optimization Technician - Western

JTL-Access Network-ROT-W-08-20 | Engineering | Contract | Posted on June 8th, 2022 | Expires on August 10th, 2020

RADIO OPTIMIZATION TECHNICIAN ROLE:

We are seeking to recruit a qualified 4G Radio Optimization Technician to install and maintain our 4G equipment.

RADIO OPTIMIZATION TECHNICIAN RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Installation of 4G microwave radios, LTE equipment and other equipment in tower sites;
- Doing Physical acceptance Tests of newly installed equipment sites;
- Work with contractors to install/service LTE sites;
- Strictly enforce HSE regulations in the region of operation for both JTL internal staff and contractors;
- Replacing radio equipment in rooftops sites and in towers;
- Power maintenance e.g. DEG, rectifier, battery checks;
- Doing periodic maintenance of Telecommunications equipment;
- Periodic maintenance of tower and rooftop infrastructure for rust and earthing quality;
- Assist team in performing network upgrades when required;
- Assist team in supervising contractors when required;
- Perform site visits and site surveys;
- Perform network drive tests when required;
- Documentation and generation of reports as and when required.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE RADIO OPTIMIZATION TECHNICIAN JOB:

- Diploma in Electrical and Electronic engineering with at least three (3) years working experience;
- Experience and Knowledge of 4G microwave radio installation, commissioning and maintenance;
- Knowledge of LTE/GSM equipment installation, commissioning and maintenance; Certification on this is an added advantage;
- Possession of a valid fall arrest certification with at least one year to expiry;
- Training in HSE and DOSH regulations;
- Be physically and mentally fit.

Location: Eldoret

Department: Access Network

Job Type: contract